

DEAD SUCKS

The new vampire-comedy that'll have the dead rising from their graves...in protest.

Dead Sucks was written originally as a feature-length pilot for a proposed series. Writer/director Elias (LovecraCked! The Movie) and BiFF JUGGERNAUT Productions have produced the first 7 minutes of the pilot and will be screening it at festivals and conventions as an introductory short in an effort to drum up awareness and the needed additional financing and support.

Synopsis: Introducing Burt, a wayward vampire with a messy past, an uncertain future and a disproportionate need for sleep. Rejected by both vampires and humans alike, he searches to find his place in a world where the only thing that sucks more than being alive is being dead.

Find out why it sucks to be dead.
